THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

July 14, 2015

We are honored to send our warmest greetings to all those gathered at the 94th National Convention of the Disabled American Veterans (DAV) and Auxiliary.

The America we know today is possible because of the extraordinary bravery and selflessness of the men and women who have served in our Armed Forces. Meeting every mission with fearless resolve, they have helped forge our freedoms, and they have inspired our Nation’s continued pursuit of liberty.

Our country has a solemn duty to do right by our service members, veterans, and wounded warriors when they return home. The DAV and its Auxiliary help make good on America’s promise to secure world-class care and benefits for our heroes and their families, and their efforts to support those who have served represent the very best of our national character.

As you come together in Denver to continue the work of supporting and empowering our veterans and their loved ones, we wish you the very best for a productive convention.

Denver is known as the “Mile High City.” The 13th step on the west side of the Colorado State Capitol Building is exactly 5,280 feet above sea level—one mile high.

The dome of the Colorado state capitol is plated with real 24 karat gold.

In 1893, while on top of nearby Pikes Peak, Katharine Lee Bates was inspired to write the words to “America the Beautiful.”

Denver brews more beer than any other city in the nation, with over 200 different beers brewed daily.

Denver is one of the 12 U.S. cities to have teams from four major sports (baseball, hockey, football and basketball).

Denver has the largest city park system in the nation, with 14,000 acres of mountain parks and 2,500 acres of natural areas.

The Denver mint is the single largest producer of coins in the world. You can tell if a coin is made in Denver by a D mark.

ALERT: While you are here, drinking plenty of water is the number one way to help your body adjust easily to the higher altitude. The low humidity in Colorado keeps the air dry, like the desert, so you need about twice as much water there as you would drink at home.

Complimentary water will be available for the duration of the event, provided by Denver Water in recognition of our nation’s disabled veterans and their families.

We are dedicated to a single purpose: empowering veterans to lead high-quality lives with respect and dignity. We accomplish this by ensuring that veterans and their families can access the full range of benefits available to them; fighting for the interests of America’s injured heroes on Capitol Hill; and educating the public about the great sacrifices and needs of veterans transitioning back to civilian life.

This mission is carried forward by:

- Providing free, professional assistance to veterans and their families in obtaining benefits and services earned through military service and provided by the Department of Veterans Affairs and other agencies of government;
- Providing outreach concerning its program services to the American people generally, and to disabled veterans and their families specifically;
- Representing the interests of disabled veterans, their families, their widowed spouses and their orphans before Congress, the White House and the Judicial Branch, as well as state and local government;
- Extending the DAV’s mission of hope into the communities where these veterans and their families live through a network of state-level Departments and local Chapters; and
- Providing a structure through which disabled veterans can express their compassion for their fellow veterans through a variety of volunteer programs.
First-rate learning opportunities to help you meet tomorrow’s challenges in your Chapter, Unit and Department when you return home from Denver.

The following seminar descriptions detail a line-up of education opportunities offered at the 94th National Convention of DAV and the Auxiliary. All of these sessions are open to every DAV and Auxiliary member, as well as guests registered for the convention. You are encouraged to attend as many as possible.

Because some seminars had to be scheduled at the same time, you won’t be able to make all of them, so read over the descriptions and decide which sessions interest you the most and which will be the greatest help in your work with DAV and the Auxiliary. All of these seminars offer valuable information to help you become more effective in your work for America’s ill and injured veterans and their families. All will be available to you and your comrades back home online. Learn more at www.dav.org/events/2015-national-convention.
